Zone Meeting

The Mill Creek club will be hosting our first Zone Meeting of the year. It will be held at the China First restaurant, 6200—196th Street SW in Lynnwood. Start time is 6:30 PM. This will be an Advisory Zone meeting. Presidents, secretaries and all members are invited to attend. Our program, thanks to Lion Red Bingham, will be from the Sight and Hearing foundation to bring us information before Golden Ear Days. In the past few years some of the clubs have stopped supporting this event. Please consider the value of their work and how we can support that endeavor.

We are looking forward and ahead to the third annual Busy B Auction, October 22nd. If you have not attended before, you have missed some fun. If you have, then I know I will see you on the 22nd. There are several silent auction rounds and of course, the live auction with all the great stuff. On top of that, you get dinner for a great value. If you or your club has something to donate to the auction, please contact Ron Wilkie or Kathy Schumer.

ZC Tidbits:

CALENDAR

- Lion Linda Holz from the Mill Creek club is the Zone Sunshine representative. Her e-mail is: barrylover@yahoo.com. Please let her know of anyone in the Zone who may be ill or otherwise in need of a little sunshine in their life.
- We have a new parade at which to flaunt our stuff. It is Kenmore. Please be there before 4 PM (earlier for set up), parade starts at 5 PM. They meet at the parking lot where the old drive-in theatre used to be. Please continue our tradition that each club brings one bag of candy. See you there!
- Plan on attending the Road Rally this Sunday, September 11th. It will be fun. Meet at 1 PM at the new Town Center shopping area, 2 blocks north of the Central market. This is a pot-luck lunch (served about 2:30 or 3 PM), hot dogs provided by Mill Creek.
- Our PCC Surinder Gahir reminds us that the Peace Poster theme for this year is "Peace without Borders." This is a wonderful program for all youth ages 11-13 on November 15, 2005. Now is the time to contact the schools.
